02 · Findings

Five critical diagnoses.

A fractal gap of one hundred and seventy.

In seventy-eight years, from the provisional government to Netanyahu's sixth term, Israel's F score fell from 100 to 0.6. The curve is exponential — this is a trend, not an accident.

A third of institutions already in collapse.

Of fifteen public systems analyzed, six operate below their collapse threshold: the police (F=5), Southern Command (8), the state prosecution (8), the Rabbinate (8), education (10), and welfare (10).

Sixty-five percent of sectors — in collapse.

Palestinians in Gaza live at F=0.1. Bedouin at F=1. Native secular Israelis at F=1.7. Internal variance: two hundred and sixty-seven times. Israel-Palestine is the most fragmented society in the Western world.

4 Cumulative damage: two trillion shekels.

Nineteen years of Benjamin Netanyahu's rule. Cumulative net fiscal impact: minus 666 billion. Indirect damage: minus 210 billion. Debt accumulated: 735 billion. Total: ninety-three percent of one year's GDP.

5 The citizen is fourteen times stronger than the government.

The average Israeli citizen operates at F=8.5. The current government, at F=0.6. The gap is substantial. The fate of Israel is not in the hands of those who govern. It is in the hands of those who elect them.

You are stronger than your government — fourteen times stronger, by the research. The real question is not whether Israel can recover. It is whether you will choose to.
